

ADJECTIVES WITH -ED AND -ING

D Choose the correct adjectives.

1. Jim always tells the most amusing / amused stories.
2. They felt very relaxing / relaxed after their holiday.
3. The party was amazed / amazing. Everyone had a great time.
4. Being on tour is exhausted / exhausting.
5. I was so excited / exciting about the trip that I couldn't sleep.
6. Ellen seemed very surprised / surprising to see us. She thought we had already left.
7. The homework is confused / confusing. I don't understand what to do.

E Complete the sentences for each picture. Use the -ed or -ing form of the word in the box.

The noise is irritating.....
The neighbours are irritated.....

The story is amusing.....
The audience is amused.....

The model is embarrassed.....
The situation is embarrassing.....

ADVERBS OF INTENSITY

F Choose the suitable adverbs.

1. Although they are twins, Sue is completely / slightly taller than her sister.
2. She's feeling much better. She's exercising and eating very / fairly healthy food.
3. I hate jazz. I'm not at all / pretty interested in going to a jazz concert.
4. You'll learn how to play this game quickly. It's a bit quite easy.

Make It Personal

G Complete the sentences with suitable endings.

1. The performers tried to entertain the crowd by Answers will vary. Accept all logical and grammatically correct answers.
2. The audience enjoyed the show because
3. I quit my job because
4. Music fans are pleased when
5. The film was disappointing because
6. I was totally surprised when

Writing: AN INFORMATIVE ESSAY

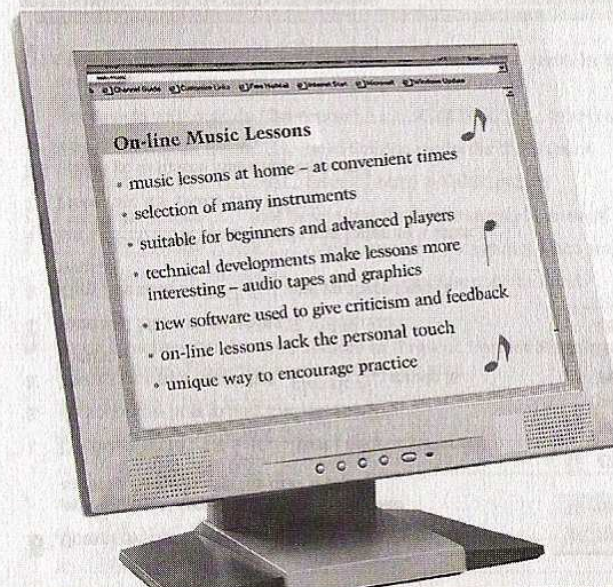

A Choose the correct answers.

1. The tickets are sold out as / so the band is extremely popular.
2. The shopping centre was crowded so / since we left quickly.
3. Since / Due to I haven't got a computer, I can't e-mail you.
4. We arrived late. Consequently / Because, we missed the first part of the show.
5. He cancelled his performance as a result due to illness.

B Complete the sentences in a logical way.

1. He's an extremely talented musician, so Answers will vary. Accept all logical and grammatically correct answers.
2. Amy didn't practise for the concert. Consequently,
3. Due to the tragic news,
4. The audience was bored because

C Read the notes about on-line music lessons. Then choose a suitable opening and closing sentence below.

Possible opening sentences:

1. New technical developments make the Web more interesting.
2. If you're looking for a new way to study music, on-line lessons may be the answer.
3. On-line lessons probably cost less than having a private teacher.

Possible closing sentences:

1. Take a look at some online lessons and see what you think.
2. On-line lessons are becoming very popular.
3. Hundreds of thousands of people are now studying music on-line.

Task: In your notebook, write an essay that describes on-line music lessons using the information in C. Use 80 – 120 words.

TIP! Remember to: Answers will vary. Accept all logical and grammatically correct answers.

- focus on a specific aspect.
- check your information for accuracy.
- include a suitable opening and closing sentence.
- review the Topic Vocabulary on page 28 of the Student's Book.
- check your work.